Excellence in Forward Integration

Garden Silk Mills Private Limited (GSMPL), a wholly owned subsidiary of MCPI Private Limited since February 2021, is now integrated into The Chatterjee Group. The acquisition of GSMPL represents a strategic forward integration by MCPI to expand into the downstream Polyester Value Chain.

Established: 1979

Products: Polyester chips, yarns, fabrics
(Cationic and FDY specialities)

Locations: Jolwa and Vareli, Surat

Workforce: Over 5,000 employees driving job creation and economic growth

Under its iconic brand Garden Vareli, GSMPL offers a diverse range of sarees and dress materials, blending timeless elegance with intricate designs and vibrant prints, making it a staple in wardrobes across generations.

Excellence in Joint Venture

MCPI Private Limited (MCPI) is entering into a 50:50 Joint Venture with Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL) to establish a large textile unit in Bhadrak, Odisha. Guided by the vision of Dr. Purnendu Chatterjee, Chairman of The Chatterjee Group (TCG), this collaboration marks a major milestone in MCPI's journey toward becoming a leading player in the PTA and polyester downstream sectors. The initiative will drive sustainable growth and reinforce India's position as a global textile powerhouse.

Strategic Expansion

Strengthens MCPI's presence in the polyester and textile industry, building on its 2021 acquisition of Garden Silk Mills Private Limited and the successful ₹1,250 crore FDY expansion project in Surat.

Project Scale

Features a 900 TPD Continuous Polymerization (CP) unit, along with downstream units for Draw Textured Yarn (DTY), Fully Drawn Yarn (FDY), polyester chips, and associated facilities.

Investment & Equity Contribution

The total project cost is estimated at ₹4,382.21 crore, with IOCL and MCPI each contributing ₹657.33 crore in equity.

National Impact

Aligns with India's vision of self-reliance in the textile sector, boosting the country's polyester value chain.

Excellence in Food Innovation

Recognising the growing demand for health-conscious and sustainable food solutions, and plant-based nutrition and dairy alternatives, MCPI has established MCPI Nutrifoods Private Limited to position itself as a leader in the plant-based nutrition sector, catering to evolving market needs and consumer preferences.

Product Expansion

Developing dietary fibres, plant based proteins, prebiotics, protein powders, nutrition bars, and meat substitutes.

Market Penetration

Building partnerships with retail chains, health food stores, and online platforms, while exploring export opportunities.

Strategic Growth

Expanding capabilities through strategic partnerships and acquisitions, with a focus on technological integration.
