

Empowering Excellence

MCPI Private Limited
(A TCG Enterprise)

In Pursuit of Excellence

MCPI Private Limited (MCPI) is a leading producer of Purified Terephthalic Acid (PTA), with an annual production capacity of 1.27 million tonnes. Located in Haldia, West Bengal, MCPI serves customers across India, delivering consistent product quality and reliable supply to support the growth of the polyester industry.

As part of The Chatterjee Group (TCG), MCPI combines manufacturing expertise, advanced technology and a customer-focused approach to strengthen its position as a trusted PTA partner.

Building on its established PTA business, MCPI is expanding across the polyester value chain through strategic forward integration, including its downstream polyester businesses and the joint venture with Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL). These initiatives reflect MCPI's ambition to diversify its business, expand its capabilities and contribute to India's evolving polyester and textile industry.

Excellence
in Chemistry

Purified Terephthalic Acid (PTA) is a key raw material for polyester manufacturing. This non-corrosive white powder enables the production of Polyester Staple Fibre (PSF), Polyester Filament Yarn (PFY), polyester resins, chips and films, supporting applications across the textile, packaging and PET industries.

Excellence
in Quality

Manufactured using proprietary Japanese technology, MCPI's PTA is backed by a strong focus on product consistency, reliable performance and customer requirements. BIS-compliant quality, consistent supply and a customer-centric approach position MCPI as a trusted partner to downstream manufacturers, helping them meet their production needs with confidence.

Excellence in Customer Service

MCPI is committed to growing with its customers by ensuring a reliable supply of world-class PTA, a vital raw material for the polyester industry.

Excellence in Forward Integration

Building on its established PTA business, MCPI pursued forward integration to expand across the polyester value chain. The acquisition of Garden Silk Mills Private Limited (GSMPL) in February 2021 marked a significant milestone. Together with Garden Silk Fashions Private Limited (GSFPL), MCPI has broadened its capabilities across polyester yarn manufacturing, textiles and fashion, strengthening its growth opportunities.

Garden Silk Mills Private Limited Integrated Manufacturing. Engineered for Performance.

Garden Silk Mills Private Limited (GSMPL), backed by MCPI Private Limited and The Chatterjee Group, is a polyester textile company with a strong legacy in high-performance polyester yarns.

From polyester chips to yarn, its integrated manufacturing ecosystem enables consistent quality, product performance and reliability. Advanced manufacturing, in-house R&D and a dedicated Centre of Excellence support continuous innovation across a diverse portfolio of yarn solutions.
